

Recent Missionary story from Elda's family

Jeff Shumway:

Jeff Shumway, while serving in Puerto Rico met people on the road, who refused their offer to teach. As the missionaries turned to walk away, the people caught up with them wanting to know more about their message. When the Elders inquired as to why the change, they explained that they had seen angels surrounding the departing missionaries.